

Women's access to reproductive health care has faced relentless attack over the past decade. Keep the pressure up!

Protect Roe v. Wade: Work Your Choice Checklist

STAND UP. SPEAK OUT.

Attend a reproductive justice or pro-choice event. Be counted. Make a difference. Write a letter to the editor, urge your elected officials to support a bill, speak up for women's reproductive rights and access for all.

EDUCATE. ILLUMINATE.

Advocate for age appropriate sex education in schools and readily available contraception for all.

VOLUNTEER. ENGAGE.

Support action funds at Planned Parenthood Affiliates of California and NARAL Pro-choice California, or non-profits California Latinas for Reproductive Justice or ACCESS Women's Health Justice.

REGISTER. RECRUIT. VOTE.

Elect pro-reproductive health, progressive women and men:

Ask a woman you admire to run for office!

News & Events

2019 SPECIAL ELECTIONS: March 26 & June 4

With State Senators Ted Gaines (R) and Ricardo Lara (D) winning their November elections for State Board of Equalization and Insurance Commissioner, respectively, Governor Newsom has announced two special elections to fill the vacancies. The primaries for SD01 and SD33 are scheduled for March 26th. Candidates will run off on June 4th if no candidate receives 50%+1 of the vote in March.

CTGCA has been active in both districts throughout the past year+.

On KQED's Political Breakdown podcast, Scott Shafer and Marisa Lagos host a quick review of the governor's proposed budget with Katie Orr, and then speak with Senate Budget Chair Holly Mitchell about her background and approach to the spending plan.

LA Times: California candidates and elected officials could use campaign funds to pay for child care under new bill. A group of California legislators want to make it easier for parents of young children to run for office by allowing candidates and elected officials to use campaign funds to pay for child care. Read more.
