

THANK YOU!

Thank you for making our fourth annual Literature, Leadership and Lunch the best ever! Whether you joined us for lunch last Friday or sponsored some of the 30 community college students who joined us, we appreciate your support.

Close the Gap California's work is possible thanks to your extraordinary generosity.

Below are a few highlights of our event for you to enjoy!

We had one full room of energized women (and men)!

Assemblymember Susan Talamantes Eggman blew us away with her high-energy, humble and humorous take on how she is turning the Central Valley from red to blue.

Close the Gap Founder Mary Hughes spoke with authors Liza Monroy and Vanessa Hua about their respective books, The Marriage Act and A River of Stars, which deal with aspects of immigration, mother-child relationships, and what defines a family in modern times. Photos by Jim Colton.

Have you donated yet? If not, we hope you will now that you have seen the great work our organization is doing to get more women elected to the state legislature.

DONATE NOW

Together we will close the gender gap in the California Legislature by 2028.
