It's Time - Election Year 2014 Just Rolled In...

More opportunity to send accomplished, progressive women to the state legislature.

Nobody seemed sorry to see 2013 go. Celebrating 2014 depends on what we do now. Let's make 2014 a terrific year for women leaders. Start here:

Let people know that the most dramatic reform Californians can make isn't dividing the state into 6 parts, but electing women. close the gap CA Director Betsy Cotton said so in the Sacramento Bee.

Sound the alarm to hold the line. We are in danger of losing more women from the Assembly and Senate. So says close the gap CA Steering Committee Member and CA List Founder Bettina Duval in the San Diego Union Tribune.

Make a commitment to do everything you can to get talented, public-spirited women running. Here's a ready-made To Do list at Huffington Post from our Founder Mary Hughes.

P.S. You're not going to want to miss the 2014 Women's Policy Summit Thursday, January 16 in Sacramento. Look for the Building Political Power panel.

close the gap CA is a statewide campaign to find talented, progressive women to run for open seats in the California legislature in 2014 and 2016. With focus and a targeted strategy, we can "close the gap"™ and not just the gender gap. When we elect progressive women, we take steps to close the school funding gap, the access gap to affordable health and reproductive care, and the growing gap between the wealthy and those in poverty.
