Noticed the activity level rising?

Elected officials are retiring and opening new seats. Other officeholders are moving up, creating more vacancies. Candidates must file by Friday, March 7 for the June ballot.

As you no doubt heard, longtime Congressmen Henry Waxman and George Miller aren't seeking re-election. As Assemblymembers and State Senators declare for their seats, new legislative seats are in play.

Here are winnable districts where no progressive woman has filed. Have you asked a woman you admire to run? Let us know.

- AD 2 Eureka (Chesbro)
- AD 4 Davis (Yamada)
- AD 7 Sacramento (Dickinson)

IN THE NEWS

SF Chronicle: "Wanted â€” women with vision to seek office" close the gap CA is a statewide campaign to find talented, progressive women to run for open seats in the California legislature in 2014 and 2016. With focus and a targeted strategy, we can â€”close the gapâ€™™ and not just the gender gap. When we elect progressive women, we take steps to close the school funding gap, the access gap to affordable health and reproductive care, and the growing gap between the wealthy and those in poverty.
