But we can't lose them either!

During last week's Republican debate, candidates had a tough time naming great women to put on the $10 bill. We decided to help them out, but couldn't stop at just one!

Accomplished progressive women are making all the difference in our CA legislature. On education reform, alleviating poverty, climate change, equal pay, predictable work schedules, women's health and so much more, they lead.

In 2016, we can elect the next generation of progressive women to succeed these 7. And we can add 9 more IF we have the resources and networks to find the best! You can help:
